Celebrating our 10th consecutive year shaping the future of Emergency Medicine, our annual Quality Summit has an exceptional lineup of speakers who will share evidence-based practices to produce better quality outcomes and enhance Emergency Medicine's value to healthcare delivery to our patients and communities.

This year's Summit will feature a presentation by Nick Zenarosa, MD, FACEP, Founder and Chairman of Integrative Emergency Services, on the current state of Emergency Medicine. Additionally, we will welcome experts to discuss the science of resuscitation and clinical best practices for pediatric and trauma emergencies in the community.
